FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear parishioners,

On this Sunday of the Word of God, celebrated this year on January 26, we are invited to reflect on the profound significance of Sacred Scripture in our lives and in the life of our Church. Instituted by Pope Francis, this special observance, occurring on the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, calls us to celebrate, study, and share the Word of God. It serves as a beautiful reminder of how Scripture deepens our relationship with God and enriches our spiritual journey as a community.

This day also carries an ecumenical spirit, urging us to strengthen our bonds with our Jewish brothers and sisters and to pray for unity among all Christians. In a world often marked by division, the Scriptures provide a pathway to authentic unity, reminding us of our shared heritage and the teachings that bring us together. Let us embrace this opportunity to foster understanding and compassion, reflecting our commitment to being one body in Christ.

Moreover, the Sunday of the Word of God encourages us to cultivate a greater familiarity with the richness of Sacred Scripture. Pope Francis has observed that many lack a solid grounding in the Bible, which can lead to an underappreciation of its transformative power. By dedicating this Sunday to the Word of God, we invite all to engage deeply with the Scriptures, embracing practices such as lectio divina for prayerful reading and contemplation.

Blessings,
Fr. Andrew
